Faith grows fastest when challenged. What Habakkuk teaches us is that through our doubts and suffering, our faith can and will be perfected.

The Prophet:

The Question:

1. God is just: though His W_____ may not seem to indicate it (vv. 2-4).
2. God is just: though He seems to I_____ the prayers of His people (v. 2).
3. God is just: though He burdens spiritually-sensitive people with the awareness of sin's presence and then does N_____ about it (v. 3).
4. God is just: though He permits His law to be I_____
(because it is not applied) and does not intervene.
5. God is just: though He permits His saints to S_____ without coming to their relief.
6. God is working in a way that man does not C_____
(v. 5).
7. God is using W_____ people to perform His righteous purpose.
