In this familiar passage we are introduced to a self-righteous man who thought that he had kept the commandments but knew that he did not have eternal life. He knew that he lacked something very important in his life. The Lord Jesus dealt with him in a very skillful way, showing him his great sin and unbelief. Jesus then used this encounter to teach his disciples about entering His kingdom.

The Rich Young Ruler (vv. 17-22)

Difficulties Riches Bring (vv. 23-27)

If not riches, then what? (vv. 28-31)
