

Suffering, Service, & Sight

Text: Mark 10:35-52

The Lord Jesus now turned His face toward Jerusalem. It was just about a week before He would be hanging on a cross, dying for the sins of the world. There is a tenses atmosphere in these verses, a sense of foreboding on the part of the disciples. Although Jesus had told them He was going to die on the cross, they weren't prepared for that message. They didn't want to hear Him say such things. They had visions of a present kingdom, an earthly reign. Even though Jesus was on the way to the cross he took time to heal blind Bartimaeus.
