Joseph goes from the frying pan (angry brothers) into the fire (slavery in Egypt). Suffering greatly, he doesn't complain but remains faithful to the Lord. In his story, we see the key to his success.

The ground of success (vv. 2-6a):

Joseph's temptation (vv. 6b-10):

Flight from seduction (vv. 11-20):

Temptation lessons:

1. When things are going well, be O___ G_____.
2. When you are tempted, R_____ who you are.
3. When you are tempted, A_____ F_____.
4. When you do right, don't expect a R_____.
5. When you do right, God will H_____ you.

Success in prison (vv. 21-23):
