

Lessons from Lydia

Acts 16:11-15

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • May 12, 2024

Women have always been important to God's work on earth, from Sarah to Deborah to Dorcas and Lydia. In our text today, we travel a little over a mile outside the city of Philippi to a tranquil scene unfolding on the banks of the Gangites river. Paul and his companions quietly sat and discussed spiritual matters with Lydia, the first convert in Europe. She is to be commended because:

1st- Her E_____ were opened to hear the Word spoken by Paul.

2nd - Her H_____ was opened to respond to the things of the Lord.

3rd- Her M_____ was opened to profess the Lord.

4th – Her H_____ was opened to receive the Lord's servants.
