

Friends and Bad Advice

Text: Job 5-6

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • July 13, 2025

Eliphaz tells Job to seek God and submit, then accept His correction (5:17), and then God would bless him again. But this suggestion played right into Satan's hands. Then Job admits that his words were rash (6:3) and explains why: his grief was a burden that his friends did not feel or try to help him carry.

Eliphaz's Appeal (5:1-16)

Eliphaz's Assurance (5:17-21)

Job's Defense (6:1-7)

Job's Despair (6:8-13)

Job's Disappointment (6:14-23)

Job's Demand (6:24-30)

Friends and Bad Advice

Text: Job 5-6

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • July 13, 2025

Eliphaz tells Job to seek God and submit, then accept His correction (5:17), and then God would bless him again. But this suggestion played right into Satan's hands. Then Job admits that his words were rash (6:3) and explains why: his grief was a burden that his friends did not feel or try to help him carry.

Eliphaz's Appeal (5:1-16)

Eliphaz's Assurance (5:17-21)

Job's Defense (6:1-7)

Job's Despair (6:8-13)

Job's Disappointment (6:14-23)

Job's Demand (6:24-30)