

Motives for Rejection

Text: Mark 15:1-20

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • July 24, 2022

The Jewish leaders delivered Jesus to the Roman governor, Pontius Pilate. They had to convince him that Jesus was guilty of capital crime and, therefore, worthy of death. Pilate had no great love for the Jews, and he knew that the Jewish leaders were not interested in seeing justice done; what they really wanted was vengeance. Here, motives are revealed.

THE SANHEDRIN: A Religiously motivated rejection of the King (v. 1)

1st-Jesus was a _____ to their power.

2nd-Jesus did not fit the _____ of their system.

3rd-Jesus _____ their sin.

PILATE: A Socially motivated rejection of the King (vv. 2-15)

THE CROWD: A Politically motivated rejection of the King (vv. 6-15)

THE SOLDIERS: An Irrational, Circumstantial rejection of the King (vv. 16-20)

Motives for Rejection

Text: Mark 15:1-20

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • July 24, 2022

The Jewish leaders delivered Jesus to the Roman governor, Pontius Pilate. They had to convince him that Jesus was guilty of capital crime and, therefore, worthy of death. Pilate had no great love for the Jews, and he knew that the Jewish leaders were not interested in seeing justice done; what they really wanted was vengeance. Here, motives are revealed.

THE SANHEDRIN: A Religiously motivated rejection of the King (v. 1)

1st-Jesus was a _____ to their power.

2nd-Jesus did not fit the _____ of their system.

3rd-Jesus _____ their sin.

PILATE: A Socially motivated rejection of the King (vv. 2-15)

THE CROWD: A Politically motivated rejection of the King (vv. 6-15)

THE SOLDIERS: An Irrational, Circumstantial rejection of the King (vv. 16-20)