

Mirror, Mirror on The Wall

Text: James 1:22 - 25

“...if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror:”

John Selden, a respected English attorney of the 1600's, is credited with saying “Preachers say, ‘Do as I say, not as I do’”. (You always thought it was your mother or father!) There is another idiom, “Your walk talks louder than your talk.” This morning, James instructs concerning hearing the word of God, and doing the word of God.

Introduction: The underlying principle-

_____.

What is a “doer” of the word?

Simply stated, a doer of the word is one who _____ what the word says!

First, _____ the Lord your God . . . by developing a _____.

How? _____ with Him via _____

Second, _____ others. Do the _____.

Third, _____ of the world.

What do you see in the mirror?
