

The Final Word

Text: Malachi 4

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • October 9, 2022

The Old Testament ends with the ominous word “curse” (Mal.4:6). At the close of the New Testament, the promise is, “And there will no longer be any curse” (Rev. 22:3). What made the difference? On the cross, Jesus Christ was made a curse for us. Malachi ends looking forward to the coming of the Lord and reminds us to remember God’s Word.

Two types of people: (3:15-16)

Judgment and Healing (4:1-3)

Heart Change (4:4-6)

The Final Word

Text: Malachi 4

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • October 9, 2022

The Old Testament ends with the ominous word “curse” (Mal.4:6). At the close of the New Testament, the promise is, “And there will no longer be any curse” (Rev. 22:3). What made the difference? On the cross, Jesus Christ was made a curse for us. Malachi ends looking forward to the coming of the Lord and reminds us to remember God’s Word.

Two types of people: (3:15-16)

Judgment and Healing (4:1-3)

Heart Change (4:4-6)

