

A Commitment to Contentment

Text: Philippians 4:10-20

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • October 22, 2023

In our text today, we see that God provides the power we need for life and service (vv. 10-13) and the material needs we have as well (vv. 14-20). Paul did not have a wealthy organization giving him support, but he did have a great God who enabled generous friends to meet his needs. Paul saw their gift as a fragrant sacrifice to the Lord (v. 18), and he rejoiced in the Lord for what they did.

1. Joy in Financial Contentment (vv. 10-13)

2. Joy in Christ's Provision (vv. 14-20)

3. Joy in Christian Friends (vv. 21-23)

A Commitment to Contentment

Text: Philippians 4:10-20

Pastor Gregg Cantelmo • October 22, 2023

In our text today, we see that God provides the power we need for life and service (vv. 10-13) and the material needs we have as well (vv. 14-20). Paul did not have a wealthy organization giving him support, but he did have a great God who enabled generous friends to meet his needs. Paul saw their gift as a fragrant sacrifice to the Lord (v. 18), and he rejoiced in the Lord for what they did.

1. Joy in Financial Contentment (vv. 10-13)

2. Joy in Christ's Provision (vv. 14-20)

3. Joy in Christian Friends (vv. 21-23)