Today we come to the final chapter in our study of the book of Daniel. It concludes the vision begun in chapter 10, and looks all the way to the end of earthly kingdoms just before God's glorious kingdom is revealed. Dark times are ahead but there is also good news and encouragement to persevere.

"Will the people of God endure when evil does its worst?"

The answer is positive because of what we have or will be given.

1. We will have S_____ in the greatest trouble (vv. 1-4).
2. We will have C_____ in the hardest misery (vv. 5-7).
3. We can have T_____ in the darkest days (vv. 8-12).
4. We have D_____ for the present moment (v. 13).
